“Courtesy Finance Announces Mid-Season Tax Results.”

GEORGIA, February 8, 2010 – Courtesy Finance, LLC, a consumer finance company based in Roswell, Ga., announced 2010 mid-season tax results. To date, the company has increased the number of tax returns prepared by 80% over the number of returns prepared last year. Courtesy Finance expects this trend to continue through the end of tax season. The company is attributing some of their success to their recent partnership with CourtesyTax, LLC. CourtesyTax is tax service bureau based out of Rome, Ga. that facilitates the offering of tax preparation services for companies like Courtesy Finance.

While tax season has brought early success for Courtesy Finance, the company acknowledges that it is far from over. “We want the community to know that we are still preparing tax returns,” said Bill Lawson, District Manager at Courtesy Finance. “We schedule appointments so customers avoid long waits and, unlike the seasonal tax chains, we are open year round to help if a customer needs us.” The last day to file your taxes without penalty is April 15, 2010. Until then, Courtesy Finance employees will stay late to prepare personal tax returns.

To reward people who visit Courtesy Finance, the company is giving away a Phillips 42” Flat Panel HD Television. Customers are automatically registered for the drawing when they let Courtesy Finance prepare their taxes by March 15, 2010. “During these tough times, we wanted to do something for our customers to let them know we appreciate their patronage,” said Lawson. “Purchasing a new television is a luxury nowadays, so we thought this would be an appropriate way to say ‘thanks’ for being a loyal customer.” A winner will be randomly selected on March 20, 2010 at the company’s corporate headquarters.

Courtesy Finance offers Personal Installment Loans, Tax Preparation Services, Motor Club Memberships and Notary Services. The company also provides Holiday Tax Loans as early as November and a full range of Tax Refund Products. The company motto is “The Credit You Deserve with Courtesy,” which they fulfill by providing outstanding customer service and financial products that help build or rebuild credit.

Courtesy Finance Corporate Headquarters is located at 295 W Crossville Road, Building 500 Suite 530, Roswell, Ga. 30075. The company has nine branch offices in Georgia, Tennessee and Alabama.
